

Tamotsu Fujii

Born in 1949 in Oda-shi, Shmane-prefecture, Tamotsu Fujii joined the photography department of Osaka Advertising Research Institute after graduating from Tokyo Sogo Photography School.

Fujii became independent in 1976 and later established Tamotsu Fujii Photography Inc. in Tokyo. He actively supplies quality photography for advertisements, TV commercials and other media Fujii's career has also brought countless recognition including the Tokyo Art Directors Club Award, chosen by a society of top Japanese advertising creatives.

Veröffentlichte Werke / Published works

Tribe

collected works by stylist Michiko Kitamura from Asahi Publishing

Skeleton

Collected works by designers Keny Hara and Taku Sato from Rikuyosha

Galleria Hati

Collected works by artist Tatsuy Ishii

Kioku 1995

Collected works by ceramic artist Kazo Takiguchi

Esumi 1996

Collected works by Tamotsu Fujii, Little More Publishing

Crossing the parallel - Le corbusier Mori Collection 1999

Momri Building Co., Ltd., Tokyo

Niraikanai 1999

Collected works by Tamotsu Fujii, Little More Publishing

Wacoal Dia, No. 00, 01, 02, Tokio, 2004